RE: Assault - Premises Liability

DOL: August 22, 2025

Dear Justin Horn:

After careful consideration of your incident on August 22, 2025 we have determined that we will no longer be able to proceed with a claim on your behalf.

Please be advised that our inability to proceed with your case at this time does not constitute a legal opinion that your case is without merit. Accordingly, we urge you to consult with other attorneys and/or the Local Bar Association (prior to making a final decision with respect to this matter.)

Be aware that the Statute of Limitations in the State of Pennsylvania for this type of case is 2 years from the date of the incident. If you do not file a lawsuit by August 22, 2027, your claim will be forever barred.

We wish you the best of luck with your future endeavors.

Very truly yours,

/s/

David M. Bercovitch
